GRATITUDE AND BEST WISHES TO FATHER JOE DORAN!!!

Dear friends,

Father Joe Doran has been part of our parish for the past eighteen years. During this time he has blessed us with his wisdom, Salesian spirit and priestly love. After all this time, Father Joe is sadly moving on to a new assignment in Boston, Massachusetts. While we will all miss him here at Saint Columba, I am certain that each of us will wish him well and pray for his intentions as he begins this new chapter of service to God's people. Father Joe Doran's last mass will be Sunday, June 25.

Due to Father Doran's departure and the limitations of our pastoral resources at this time, the Sunday evening mass will no longer be offered beginning in July. For those currently attending church on Sunday at 6pm, I invite you to consult our bulletin for the schedule of Masses. Thank you for your understanding.

Again, prayerful gratitude and best wishes to Father Joe Doran!

In Christ,

Fr. John
