SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA
"LILY OF THE MOHAWK"

FEAST DAY: JULY 14th

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, was born in 1656 in the Mohawk village of Ossernenon, known today as Auriesville, New York.

At a young age she contracted smallpox in an epidemic. Her family did not survive the epidemic. It left her face badly scarred and her vision was severely impacted.

She converted to Roman Catholicism at age nineteen, when she was renamed Kateri, baptized in honor of Saint Catherine of Siena. She took a devout vow of perpetual virginity. She is often referred to as a lily, a traditional symbol of purity associated with the Virgin Mary since the medieval period. Religious images of Tekakwitha are often decorated with a lily and cross, with feathers or turtle as cultural accessories alluding to her Native American birth.

Known for her virtue of chastity and mortification of the flesh, as well as being shunned by some of her tribe for her religious conversion to Catholicism, she is the fourth Native American to be venerated in the Roman Catholic Church and the first to be canonized. Upon her death at the age of 24, witnesses said that minutes later her small pox scars vanished and her face appeared radiant and beautiful. Under the pontificate of Pope John Paul II, she was beatified in 1980 and canonized by Pope Benedict XVI at Saint Peter's Basilica on October 21, 2012. Various miracles and supernatural events are attributed to her intercession.
